

Martin Gunnarson

b. 790317

Lund University

Box 117

221 00 Lund

Sweden

Tel: +46709-282522/+468-6084801

martin.gunnarson@sh.se

Current employment

PhD candidate in Ethnology – Department of Arts and Cultural Sciences, Lund University, and Centre for Studies in Practical Knowledge, Department of Culture and Communication, Södertörn University – 2008-12-01-

Research Assistant – Department of Arts and Cultural Sciences, Lund University – 2012-12-01-

Publications

“Delade erfarenheter eller egen expertis: att vara dialyspatient i Riga och Stockholm”. Socialmedicinsk tidskrift, vol. 88:3, 2011.

The Body as Gift, Resource and Commodity: Exchanging Organs, Tissues and Cells in the 21st Century (editor). Huddinge: Södertörn Studies in Practical Knowledge, 2012.

“Introduction”, in: Gunnarson, Martin and Svenaeus, Fredrik (eds.) The Body as Gift, Resource and Commodity: Exchanging Organs, Tissues and Cells in the 21st Century. Huddinge: Södertörn Studies in Practical Knowledge, 2012.

“Concealed by the ‘Gift of Life’: The Complexities of Living with Dialysis and Kidney Transplantation in Stockholm and Riga”, in: Gunnarson, Martin and Svenaeus, Fredrik (eds.) The Body as Gift, Resource and Commodity: Exchanging Organs, Tissues and Cells in the 21st Century. Huddinge: Södertörn Studies in Practical Knowledge, 2012.

Teaching

Thesis supervisor, b-course in Ethnology (7,5 credits), Södertörn University, spring 2009 and spring 2010.

Course coordinator and teacher, “The Body in Movement” (7,5 credits), pre-school teacher program, Södertörn University, 2010-2011.

Previous employments (in selection):

Teacher and teacher’s assistant – Ågesta Folk High School – 2003-2008

- Taught Music, Swedish and English to persons with visual impairments

Freelancer – MTV Nordic – 2006-2008

- Wrote programme description and managed the programme table on the website

Education (in selection):

English Language and Literature Program (30 credits) – Pace University, New York City – Fall 1999

Aesthetics Programme (180 credits) – Bachelor in Ethnology (90 credits) – Södertörn University – 2000-2003

Master in Ethnology (30 credits) – Södertörn University – Spring 2005